

Infotech Unit 15

Online alı1_: https://quizlet.com/_cjd09

1. Database A file of structured data,
2. database is a collection of related data
3. Database Management System (DBMS) the software used in databases to store, organize and retrieve the data
4. fields A unit of information in a record. In a database, information is entered via fields.
5. record A unit of a file consisting of a number of interrelated data elements (fields),
6. files A collection of records in a database.
7. updated To make something more modern or suitable for use now by adding information or changing its design,
8. updated you can always change fields, add new records or delete old ones
9. index a list of records ordered according to the content of certain fields
10. search To look for specific information,
11. sort To classify, to reorder data into a new sequence
12. relational database A database system that maintains separate, related files (tables), but combines data elements from the files for queries and reports
13. query A request for data; in a database, a function that allows you to extract data according to certain conditions or criteria.
14. network A system of computer devices or 'nodes' (e.g. PCs and printers), interconnected so that information and resources can be shared by a large number of users.